Dick When I was a lit-tle boy, my 5 fa - ther_ said, our fami- ly's_ al - ways stood and faced the foes that they most dread. So to this day I ne-ver run a- way_ and_ meet things head to head. The mot-to of the Bar-tons is give each job your best, keep a stiff up-per lip and al-ways wear a vest! Pack a tooth-brush, and change your un-der-wear. Eat an Ap-ple ev-'ry day and 17

comb your hair.

All Hail Dick Bar-ton, A spif-fing sort of chum.

20

Bri-tain ne-ver, ne-ver, ne-ver shall suc-cumb!

23

Dick Hap-py and glo-ri-ous is my an-ces-try. My 26

15

fam - ily_ since the_ dawn of time has led the_ vic - to - ry. From 28

A - gin-court to Wa- ter - loo_ we've sung our eu - lo-gy.

30

We are the Bar- tons, we give each job our best. We keepa stiff up- per lip, and al- ways wear a vest. Where's my tooth- brush? I've changed my un - der - wear Ea - ten an ap - ple ev - 'ry day, and 37

32

35

combed my hair.

All Hail Dick Bar - ton, he's aw - fully aw - fully brave

40

Bri - tains ne - ver, ne - ver, ne - ver Shall be Slaves!
